The Stonehage Fleming Charitable Trust (SFCT) is the main expression of our Corporate Social Investment (CSI) strategy.

Our mission is to create a tangible legacy reflecting this commitment, primarily in the fields of education, healthcare, social and sport development where it is most desperately needed. We also promote excellence in the arts and sponsor other initiatives reflecting the values of the Stonehage Fleming Group.

“What counts in life is not the mere fact that we have lived. It is what difference we have made to the lives of others that will determine the significance of the life we lead.”

LONDON MARATHON 2016 FOR ICAN

Our London office friend and colleague, Samantha Nicanovich, took part in the London Marathon this April.

Samantha ran in proud support of ICAN, a charity which helps children with Speech, Language and Communication Needs (SLCN).

ICAN is the only UK-wide charity that supports children’s communication skills, the springboard from which children learn, achieve and make friends. Samantha achieved a hugely impressive personal best time of 3:55:10. Congratulations to Sam!

AMBER ROCKS FOR THE AMBER FOUNDATION

In May, Stonehage Fleming joined Eddie Jordan for his annual Amber Rocks event at One Marylebone. The evening included a dinner with an auction and a live performance by “Eddie and the Robbers”. Our table included; Graham Wainer, Scott Oliphant, Richard Clarke-Jervoise, Richard Bertin and Adrian Bottega.

Amber Foundation helps young people turn their lives around; taking them into a carefully planned residential programme which gives the structure, support and guidance they desperately need. Amber offers a route off the street and back into the mainstream.

For 20 years, the Amber Foundation has helped over 2,300 young people transform their lives. They give them the time, space and support they need to overcome personal barriers; to learn new skills and behaviours and really move forward with their lives.

CHARITY CLAY DAY, SWINTON PARK, YORKSHIRE

The 17th Swinton park charity Clay Day, in support of the Countryside Alliance and The Princes Trust, by kind permission of Lord and Lady Masham.

Approximately £200,000 was raised over the two days for the charities. One of the event’s title sponsors, Promatic, also successfully took on a couple of Prince’s Trust beneficiaries, one of whom is now a full time engineer for the firm. Stonehage Fleming entered a team with Matthew Fleming and Simon Ward hosting our guests.

The day saw 1000 targets of varying difficulty over 6 stands. A great day was had by all, and our team finishedrespectably half way down the field.
ROYAL JERSEY GOLF CLUB JUNIORS COMPETITION

In May, for a second year, Stonehage Fleming continued its support as main sponsor of the Jersey Junior Golf Day, held at the Royal Jersey Golf Club.

The purpose of the day is to raise funds to support junior golf in Jersey, and in particular to provide funding for talented junior golfers to travel and participate in events in the UK.

The event was a great success with over a hundred golfers taking part (between the ages of 11-18 years). Giuseppe Ciucci, Mark Lewis and Rob Douglas participated. Several guests were invited and played; with a dinner held after the competition.

JEWISH CARE DINNER

In June, Ezra and Chantelle Sofer attended the annual Jewish Care Dinner. Only days before the EU referendum the Prime Minister, Rt Hon David Cameron spoke at the dinner.

The evening was brought to a close with a performance from former X factor winner and multi-platinum selling artist Leona Lewis who generously donated her time to perform at the event.

The evening raised a fantastic £5.1million, which was a great start towards their annual £15million fundraising target, needed to ensure the charity can continue to provide the much needed services across the community.

Jewish Care is the largest provider of health and social care services for the Jewish Community in the UK. Every week, the charity touches the lives of 10,000 people, providing services to the elderly, people with mental health needs, holocaust survivors, dementia, MS, Parkinson’s, strokes, and those who are visually impaired, people who are bereaved or recently separated.

#WALK50 FOR DIMBLEBY CANCER CARE

In June, 5 participants linked to Stonehage Fleming took part in the #Walk50 fundraising challenge (Hamish Sinclair, Christopher Gillman, Nina Malherbe, Gerda Smit and Jonathan Cockburn). Over 100 people walked 50 kilometres overnight from St Thomas’ Hospital, out to Putney Bridge, back through Central London to Canary Wharf and Greenwich before heading back to the shining beacon of The Shard to Guy’s Hospital.

The team walked with Jonathan Dimbleby in proud support of Dimbleby Cancer Care, a charity that funds research into a cure for cancer, as well as offering care and support to those affected by cancer – the patients, their families and carers.

Our team raised a combined total of £5750.56!
WEIZMANN GLOBAL GATHERING

The Weizmann Institute of Science is a world-renowned scientific research centre with over 2,800 scientists, graduate students and support staff undertaking exciting innovative projects ranging from basic research in the neurosciences, cancer and children’s diseases, to environmental and energy research, chemistry, physics and computer science.

For the first time in its 80 year history, Weizmann UK brought to London over 400 leading international philanthropists, influential community members and global business leaders for a unique three day global gathering event. Guests were invited to explore cutting edge science and the integral connection between science and philanthropy through a series of scientific presentations, lunches and dinners with inspiring guest speakers.

Stonehage Fleming were proud to host lunch on the second day at the Landmark Hotel, with a talk from cultural commentator and award winning novelist Norman Lebrecht. Graham Wainer, Richard Fitzalan Howard, Hamish Sinclair, Ezra Sofer, Gerrit Smit, Jacqui Cheshire, Michael Berman, James Macready, Cressida Grant and Clare Pooley all attended key events throughout the 3-day Global Gathering.
